

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Should I believe anything in Democratic Underground or DailyKos?

Postings on WMR that rely entirely on unreliable sources such as Democratic Underground or DailyKos are generally not considered acceptable. Recommending poorly sourced and propagandist coincidence theory websites whose proprietors and moderators are shills for the Democratic Leadership Council (DLC), the Anti-Defamation League, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), Tavistock-oriented psyop circles, and the Republican/corporatist wing of the Democratic Party should be avoided.

Democratic Underground is a dysfunctional "group think" tool of the Israel Lobby and censors any posters who sharply criticize Israel or its U.S. Lobby. The site parades itself as "progressive" but is, in fact, pro-corporate and anti-socialist and anti-progressive.

We also add The Smirking Chimp and its editor Jeff Tiedrich to the list of dubious gatekeepers for the "usual suspects."
